Call for Submissions is Now Open until March 20, 2024.

Dear colleagues,

The call for entry for the XVIII World Congress of Comparative Education on Societies is now open. The congress takes place at Cornell University, New York, United States, from July 22 to July 26. The theme of the congress is "promoting inclusive ecologies of knowledge: education for fair and sustainable future".

Co-convened by WCCES and UNESCO, and co-organized by NGVO and IOCES, the XVIII WCCES World Congress will be a unique venue to bring together constituent societies and their members, other scholars, researchers, policy-makers, community leaders, and stakeholders from around the world to exchange ideas, share research findings, and discuss innovative approaches to addressing the educational challenges of our time. This event will serve as a unique opportunity for collaboration and cross-cultural understanding to explore diverse knowledge systems, advocate for inclusive and sustainable education, and contribute to shaping a more equitable and sustainable future for humanity. Teachers, researchers, practitioners, students, authors, presenters, exhibitors, and instructors are invited to submit submissions in English in line with the congress's theme and sub-themes. For more information go to: <https://www.wcces2024congress.org/>.
